6th Grade - The Boy Who Challenged Hitler - Summer Reading Comprehension

Please answer the following questions. Can be handwritten or typed.

1. Phillip Hoose dedicates his book to “young people everywhere who find the courage to make up their own minds.” Keeping in mind this quotation and the cover of the book, how did the members of the Churchill Club find the courage to continue their struggle against Nazi, Germany.
2. Why was Denmark so important to the Nazis? Refer to the maps on pages 16 and 24 to support your answer.
3. What were Danish citizens’ differing views about the Churchill Club? Imagine you were a Danish citizen during World War II. What might your opinion have been? Defend your position with evidence from the text.
4. Why was it critical to the club that Danish citizens see that “someone was not giving in” to the Nazis.
5. Do you agree with the members of the club that keeping secrets from their parents about their actions was necessary and acceptable? Are secrets ever okay?
6. How do Knud and other members of the club lose a part of themselves in prison? How does it seem to affect them later in life? How can we compare their struggles with soldiers returning home from war.
7. Define empathy. Where do we see examples of empathy in the book?
8. Should empathy be a part of war? Why or why not?
9. On the night of Winston Churchill’s award ceremony, Knud reads his invitation. The title on the card states “Knud Pedersen, Member of the Churchill Club” (p.166). Knud was very proud. In your own life, if you were given a card like this, what title would be listed on it that would make you proud? Why?
